THE MARKETS

COTTON.

The Liverpool market opened this morning three points down, ruled narrow and closed one to two points down. The American markets opened practically unchanged from last night, ruled narrow throughout the session and closed a few points under last night's figures. The market is still in a waiting attitude and all trade interest is centered in the ginners' report, which will be issued on the opening of the market tomorrow.

Bryan spots are quoted today at 14 1/4c, basis middling.

attention should be given by the farmer to this source of revenue.

The poultry market is firm and unchanged with strong demand reported. Turkeys are quoted at 15@17c; hens $4.75@6.00; fryers $3.25@4.25; broilers $2.25@3.00 per dozen. Fresh eggs are very scarce at 28@30c; higher prices predicted; storage stock is quoted at 27@29c and will advance as Christmas approaches. Country butter is moving freely and quoted at 18@20c; Texas creamery is quoted at 32c and fancy brands at 34@35c. Cheese steady at 18 1/2@19c for full cream Daisies.

Cool weather the past week and the approaching holidays stimulated retail trade, but dullness will mark wholesale business till the first of the year. Business failures in the United States for the week ended December 1 totaled 217, against 230 for the same period last year. Collections in Houston and this district ranged from fair to good. There was only one failure in the forty-two counties included. Houston's bank clearings for the week totaled $35,015,872.

The cotton market last week reached the highest levels of the season, January contracts going to 15.04 and March to 15.33. The advance was due to acceptance of numerous estimates of a short crop. Weakness was temporarily exhibited on Friday, caused by a bearish private estimate. Spots stay near 15c.

Kansas City Livestock Letter.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Dec. 5.—Cattle receipts were moderate here last week, but ran too much to good heavy fed steers, which gave buyers the chance to take off some of the recent advance on that kind. They closed the week 20@30c lower. Cheap cattle sold good all week, and closed firm. Westerns 15@25c higher, cows and heifers 25@40c higher, bulls likewise, stockers and feeders up 10@15c. Killers are pretty well stocked up on the good quality and weighty fed steers, and came out this morning without much appetite for them, barely steady today. All other kinds are a little stronger today. Run 17,000 head. Some prime yearlings sold at $2.90 to $3.00, corresponding to the $7.00 yearlings last Tuesday and $7.10 yearlings last Monday. The best heavy steers sell at $6.00@6.50, short fed steers $5.00@5.85. A few quarantine fed steers are here today, the best at $5.50. Prime heavy steers are $2.50 per cwt. lower than at this time a year ago, and sticky at that. Bulls are selling at extremely high prices, nothing of quality under $4.00 and tops at $4.75. Heavy cows bring up to $5.00 and fancy heifers $6.00 for odd head, carloads up to $5.50, stock calves $4.50 @5.25, veals up to $8.00, stock steers $3.75@5.00, feeders $4.25@5.25. The run of Colorado cattle here today is only one-fourth as large as on last Monday, the big drop in receipts from that section marking the close of the fall shipping season there.

A big increase in shipping demand for hogs forced packers into the competition last week, and the close of the week showed a net gain of 14c over close of previous week. Receipts were disappointing to killers, and unless more hogs show up at the markets this week there are signs of another big bulge in prices. Recent developments seem to have injected confidence into hog owners, and preponderance of light weights is disappearing; values of all kinds now close together. Run is 6000 here today; market unevenly higher, closing at top, note, 10@15c above Saturday, top $7.45, bulk of sales $7.30@7.40.

Sheep and lambs exhibited good staying powers last week, and held up good till the last days of the week. The market finally sagged 15@25c from extreme top, and prices are off a little more today; run 11,000 head. Top lambs today sold at $6.30, yearlings worth $5.50 for light weights, wethers $4.25, ewes $3.90. Three-fourths of the supply today is fed stuff, one-fourth direct from the range. Feeding lambs can be obtained around $5.00.

Houston Weekly Review.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]

Houston, Texas, Dec. 7.—Texas fruits and vegetables are now moving into market in increased volume. The Brownsville-Corpus Christi-Rockport district is making a hit with bell peppers, beans, cucumbers, lettuce, etc. Satsuma oranges are forcing a gradually broadening market. One orchard near Houston has marketed over twenty-five cars. Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Kansas City and other large cities are being supplied. Prices are at $2.00@2.50 per crate. All South Texas products are in big demand. Pecans are quoted at 10@20c per pound. Rice is unchanged on a weak market.

Last week a farmer exhibited a check for $1300, representing shipments of hogs to this market. He said his profits were $1100. The demand is far in excess of the supply. More

CASE REVERSED AND DISMISSED

Two Men Convicted of Burglary in McLennan Turned Loose Because of Error in Indictment.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]

Austin, Texas, Dec. 7.—The case of Curtis McGinzy and Cullen Nobles, convicted of burglary in the McLennan county court, McGinzy getting forty-one and Nobles forty years, was reversed and dismissed by the court of criminal appeals today because the indictments say the offense occurred February 29, 1910, an impossible date.

A Young Philosopher.

Time is a relative quantity. Some minutes seem like hours, and some hours seem like minutes. How to control this flight is beyond most persons, but the little boy mentioned below seems to have progressed pretty well for a youngster.

The teacher was surprised to see that he remained perfectly idle all through recess, and accordingly asked him why he did not play.

"Cause," he said, slowly, "it makes recess too quick if I play, and I want it to la-a-st!"—Youth's Companion.
